8:00AM Welcoming Remarks: Dr. Claire Sterk, President, Emory University (Invited)

8:10AM - 9:30AM Roundtable: HIV/AIDS in Atlanta and other American Cities

Atlanta is home to four of the 48 focus counties of the President's ambitious campaign, "Ending the HIV Epidemic: A Plan for the United States." How will this plan play out in Atlanta and America's other, predominantly southern, cities which are hotspots of the epidemic?

Speakers:

Robert Redfield, Director, CDC (Invited)

Angelica Geter Fugerson, Chief Health Officer, City of Atlanta

Tori Cooper, Founder and Executive Director, Advocates for Better Care

Moderator: J. Stephen Morrison, Senior Vice President and Director, Global Health Policy Center, Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS)

9:30AM - 10:15AM Keynote Address:

The Rising Threat of Infectious Disease Outbreaks in Urban Centers

Dr. Rebecca Martin, Director, Center for Global Health (CGH), CDC

Moderated Q&A Session by Ambassador Charles Shapiro, President, World Affairs Council

10:15AM - 11:00AM Coffee Break – Networking Opportunity

11:00AM - 12:15PM Panel I: Non-communicable Diseases (NCDs), Urbanization and Inequality

In 2015, nearly 48 percent of NCD deaths in low- and middle-income countries were premature and preventable. The burden of NCDs in these countries is concentrated in predominantly urban areas, where diet and environmental factors differ dramatically from rural areas. What are the innovations necessary to encourage decision makers to implement policies that combat obesity and diabetes, reduce sedentary behavior, narrow inequalities, and improve programs to identify, treat, and monitor urban residents with NCDs?

Speakers:

Venkat Narayan, Ruth and O.C. Hubert Chair of Global Health and Epidemiology, Emory University

Pape Gaye, President and Chief Executive Officer, IntraHealth International
